

Flowton Flyer – September 2014

August is finished – hopefully the sun will return for a little while – and the children are going back to school, College, University any day soon.

As there is no “Link” magazine this month I thought I would send around this reminder of dates for the month.

ALL in SEPTEMBER! EVERYBODY welcome to all events.

All details also available on the village website:www.flowton.org.uk

Wednesday Sept. 3rd the monthly drop-in Coffee Morning in the Church Vestry from 10.30am

Wednesday Sept. 3rd A Public Meeting with Police and Crimes Commissioner (Tim Passmore) and the Chief Constable at the Limes Hotel, Needham Market, 6.30-8.30pm

Saturday Sept. 6th a Flower Arranging Workshop in the Church, 2.00-4.00pm

Saturday Sept. 13th the Annual Suffolk Historic Churches Cycle Ride or Walk – can you get sponsorship and raise funds by visiting churches? Or can you help to man our church to greet intrepid cyclists, please – more details on table in church.

Friday Sept. 19th there is a Folk Concert in the evening in Somersham Church

Saturday Sept. 20th our Family Trivia Quiz Night – 7.00pm in the church – children very welcome, in fact their help is essential for answering some of the questions! Bring refreshments/picnic/nibbles – tea and coffee available in the interval. Adults £5, 12- 18 years old £2, under 12's free. Raffle

Saturday Sept. 27th Harvest Workshop for children and parents 10.00am-noon in the church.

Sunday Sept. 28th Harvest Thanksgiving Service 4.00pm followed by shared Harvest Tea at 4.45pm in the church